

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions have showed their blatant disregard for non-partisan, objective news. Airing an inflammatory anti-Kerry documentary or even parts of it right before the Presidential election is unacceptable. If Sinclair wanted to examine say Bush's record in the National Guard and Kerry's service in Vietnam at the same time that would be fine, it would be "fair and balanced" to use a phrase that Fox abuses daily. Another problem that I have with Sinclair is why are they waiting to air their program? Why air it in the closing days before the election. Sinclair is not operating in the public's interest when they dig up dirt on one candidate and not the other. Please do not allow Sinclair to air their unchallenged propaganda. No one wants censorship, least of all me. I just want Sinclair to be accountable to the public whose airwaves they are using. I don't mind them raising the issue of Kerry's war record, but they have a responsibility to examine the other side of the coin as well.
